Pro-Family Organization Applauds Governor's Rejection of Casino Governor Walker Keeps His Promise

MADISON – After over a year of deliberation, Governor Walker issued a statement today in which he rejected the proposed Kenosha casino, saying “the risk to taxpayers was too great.”

“This is truly a victory for Wisconsin’s families,” stated Julaine Appling, president of Wisconsin Family Action.

“We strongly agree with the Governor on this decision, and we applaud his commitment to keep his promise to honor a referendum that prohibited an expansion of gambling in Wisconsin.

“Wisconsin Family Action has actively opposed the casino proposal and urged the Governor to keep his promise from the beginning because we know a new casino is a bad bet for families, Wisconsin’s best resource. Thank you, Governor, for doing the right thing for our state.”
