Hood Theological Seminary Celebrates 2025 Commencement

Hood Theological Seminary celebrated its 2025 Commencement Ceremony on Saturday, May 17, 2025, at Varick Auditorium on the campus of Livingstone College (701 West Monroe Street, Salisbury, NC, 28144). Bishop Darryl B. Starnes, Sr., the senior Bishop of the A.M.E. Zion Church and the Presiding Prelate of the Piedmont Episcopal District, was the 2025 Commencement Speaker. Bishop Starnes had three points to make during his speech. He used Psalm 78: 70-72, KJV and 1 Samuel: Chapter.16, verse 13, NLT. He discussed how to be shepherds for God's people. The first point was that "being shepherds for God's people entails feeding them, according to the integrity of our hearts", and stated that “shepherds must feed the sheep.” The second point was that being shepherds for God’s people entails leading them by the skillfulness of our hands.” The third point was that “being shepherds for God’s people entails tending the sheep by means of the anointing on our heads.”

Several awards were also given. Bishop William O. Gregg received the Teaching Excellence and Service Award, the Administrative Excellence and Service Award was given to Donna Wilson Cuthbertson and Kelly M. Bryant, the President’s Leadership Legacy Award was given to Donald Wayne Clodfelter, and the Distinguished Trustee Award was given to Rev. Dr. Randell A. Cain Jr.

Hood awarded four honorary degrees. Mrs. Nancy Baker received the Doctor of Humane letters, and Bishop Starnes received the Doctor of Divinity as the Commencement speaker. Reverend J. Gentile Everett, Ph.D., Lead Pastor and Media Innovator in the South and Eastern North Carolina Region of the U.S., and Mr. Joseph King Davis, Jr., President of the International Connectional Lay Council of the A.M.E. Zion Church also received the Doctor of Humane Letters.

Hood Theological Seminary graduated twenty students. Nine students received a Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree, nine students graduated with a Master of Divinity degree (MDiv), and two students graduated for the first time with the Master of Arts in Chaplaincy (MAC) degree.

Foundations of Christian Leadership Cohort

Dr. Rona Williams (Director, FaithLearnThrive) and Myra Bellinger (Project Coordinator, FaithLearnThrive) were both nominated and chosen to participate in Leadership Education at Duke Divinity's 2025 leadership cohort.

FLT Leadership Attends Executive Certification in Religious Fundraising Training

Dr. Rona Williams and Apostle Myra Bellinger attended the Certification in Religious Fundraising (CRF) training by The Lake Institute of Faith & Giving in Atlanta, GA, hosted at Allen Temple AME Church. The intensive three-day experience brought together faith leaders from across the country to explore spiritual and strategic approaches to fundraising within religious contexts.

Dr. Rona Williams presented "The Fire Still Falls: More Than Members, Making Disciples" during the recent CME 7th Episcopal District's Spring Meeting; providing training to over 200 attendees regarding discipleship strategies.

Planned Giving

Create your legacy through a planned gift by remembering Hood Theological Seminary in a bequest or will with gifts of stocks and bonds, gifts of real estate or personal property, life insurance, charitable trust, retirement funds/IRA or life income gifts. By making a planned gift, you will become a member of the Hood Legacy Society.

- ~ Do you have an IRA?
- ~ Are you at least 70 1/2 years of age?
- ~ Would you like to help HTS in its mission to prepare women and men for bold and creative leadership for the Christian church for a diverse world?

If you answered "Yes" to all three questions, please consider an IRA Charitable Rollover.

In an IRA Charitable Rollover, the distribution of up to $100,000 annually made directly from the IRA custodian to a qualifying public charity, such as HTS, is excluded from gross income and counts toward the required minimum distribution.
